“Look upon me and be merciful to me,
As Your custom is toward those who love Your name.”
Psalm 119:132

In Psalm 119 the capitalized pronoun “Your” referring to God occurs 211 times in 171 of the 176 verses. The principle, which this reveals is that the secret of God’s blessing, lies in the path of God’s way, not my way. David’s prayers reflect his pursuit of God’s way and at the same time his need for God’s help to live in God’s way.

Let me encourage you to choose God’s way each day. To do so you will need to pray many of the same prayers that David did, and as with David, you will need to pray them many times!

The following chart lists in alphabetical order, many clear prayer requests which David asked of God in Psalm 119. Let us make these our prayers as well!
